Rural Development Banks.

Dear Sir,

Dear Sir,
Prudential Norms for Income Recognition, Assets Classification and provisioning-Agricultural advances.
Please refer to our Circular No.NB.DoS.HYD.Po 1/4500/J-1/2004-05 (Circular No.57/Dos-3 2005)dated 7 March 2005 advising the revision in prudential norms for Income Recognition, Assets Classification and provisioning to be adopted by the State/Primary Cooperative Agriculture and Rural Development Banks with effect from 31 March 2005.

In terms of norm 5, in para 1 of the Circular, delinquency norms of 90 days were made applicable, in case of classification of term loans for activities allied to agriculture and non-farm farm sector whereas norm of two harvest seasons, which is applicable to agricultural crop loans, are applicable to all direct agricultural advances. To have a clear-cut bifurcation between agriculture loans and allied activities loans a list of activities covered under direct agricultural advances is given in Annexure. It is advised that in respect of agricultural loans other than those specified in the Annexure, identification of NPA would be done on the same basis as non-agricultural loans which, at present, has the 90 days delinquency norm. All other instructions contained in our circular dated 7 March 2005 referred to above in para (1) remain unchanged.

All State Cooperative Agriculture and Rural Development Banks are advised to place this circular before their Board of Directors and the contents of this circular may also be brought to the notice of all primary Cooperative Agriculture and Rural Development Banks under jurisdiction of your bank.

3. A copy of this letter is being sent to the Secretary(Cooperation), the Registrar of Cooperative Societies and the Chief Cooperative Auditor of your State/Union Territory for information with a request to advise the Statutory/Departmental Auditors of SCARDBs to ensure compliance of the guidelines, at the time of annual audit.

4. Please acknowledge receipt to our Regional Office.

Yours faithfully,
